

	Class Description	Instructor	Age	Room
1	Chinese Calligraphy* : This is the highest form of art in Chinese culture. Its techniques and artistry are used by Chinese scholars to channel their ideas and thoughts through writing.	Joan Kung	3rd grade & up	27
2	Chinese Cooking Class* : Food is a central part of Chinese culture. Chinese culinary traditions to passed on and shared.	Mary Jaw	7th grade & up	Cafeteria Dining Area
3	Chinese Folk Dance* : Come celebrate the grace, beauty and colorful costumes of Chinese folk dance!	Hung Chu	K & up	Auditorium
4	Chinese Musical Instruments* : Renowned UCLA Professor offers expert instruction on erhu and Chinese flute.	Chi Li	3rd grade & up	28
5	Chinese Painting* : Experience Chinese culture through magical brushes and imagination. Come learn classical watercolor techniques!	Xue Xue Gao	1st grade & up	8
6	Origami : Origami challenges you to have a steady mind and focus. 1-2 origami per lesson. Beginner/advanced levels.	Joanne Graves	K & up	35
7	Martial Arts* : Children will develop discipline, gain confidence, learn self-defense and physical fitness.	TBD	K & up	West Yard
8	SAT II Prep* : Studying for SAT exams has never been easier! Get lots of opportunity for practice.	Angela Fang	7th grade & up	22
9	Homework Club* : Get your homework done early! Teacher will help students with their Chinese school assignments.	Angela Fang	K & up	22
10	Westside Breeze* : This class will teach Chinese writing, typing, & translation. It is an opportunity for an early journalism experience.	Stephanie Liu	3rd grade & up	5